

Skills - Part 1

Below are a combination of skills you bring and skills you will be trained in Check this list from the skills you are expect to bring with you as a new probationary member:
 Probationary Field Team Member Guide found at:
<http://landsarwellington.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/Probationary-Field-Team-Member-competencies-version-2.1.pdf>

Navigation on Track

- * follow a formed track through the bush
- * Knowing where you are on the track using map features

Navigation off track

- * Navigate to a grid reference off the track
- * Follow a bearing and back bearing in the bush

GPS & Radios

- * Able to communicate information regarding grid location, terrain to IMT
 - * Mark track decision points
 - * Mark locations for further investigation
- Some training provided.*

Bushcraft - self sufficient

- * Shelter
- * Sleeping & warmth
- * Safety
- * Cooking
- * Hygiene
- * Leave no trace

Scroll to page 2 for more skills.

Skills - Part 2 (Training Provided)

Weekend training courses are provided to all probationary members. Completion of the first 3 courses and the appropriate training & operational experience makes you eligible to be evaluated as a full operational field member.

Tracking

- * Knowing how to look for tracks
- * Using missing person behaviour to determine where tracks might be
- * Following track
- * Recording evidence

Search Techniques

- * Searching for the missing party in a variety of terrain & weather conditions
- * Use appropriate techniques to maximise chance of locating the missing person

First Aid

- * Caring for missing person if injured
- * Caring for self
- * Caring for other team members

Surburban Search

- * Door to door knocking
- * Section search
- * Risk mitigation
- * Interviewing
- * Urban search techniques